

The Balwin Foundation NPC June 2017 News

The Balwin Foundation has been registered as a PBO, approved as an NPO and issued with a Section 18 certificate.

We are ready to make a difference ... are you?

"The more money we've got, the more good we can do!" Stephen Brookes,
Director - Balwin FOUNDATION

The heART of giving

The Balwin Foundation donated R10,000 towards the Knysna Disaster through Ballito radio station Life&Style FM's Operation Firestorm campaign. Their initial goal of R100,000 was exceeded, reaching a total of over R220,000. South Africa definitely is a generous nation with giving hearts.

Website ... live!

The first phase of the website is live, which includes an online application form as well as a Donate Now button. Some future changes include a Blog section with regular updates, photos and Foundation news, as well as info on the Charity Hat Walk.

Building skills

From July, our accredited, practical hands-on training courses offer contractors, labourers etc., the opportunity to learn a skill in either bricklaying, plastering, painting, tiling, carpentry or plumbing.

Bursaries paid
Jan - June 2017

"To the CEO, Directors and representatives of The Balwin Foundation, I would like to thank you for the good work that you do in providing opportunities for students and granting financial relief for students and their families. I am very grateful ... this only gives me more motivation to work harder ... toward achieving my goals." Female beneficiary of a Balwin bursary.

Call to get involved!

We appeal to Balwin staff, suppliers and supporters to please get involved. Apart from supporting various charitable education-focused organizations, the Balwin Foundation's goal is to train at least 100 tradesmen and provide at least 10 bursaries to deserving scholars and students in 2017. With your support, we can do it! All funds received are plowed back into the Foundation.
